About the Center:

TLC-Berkeley is located just 13 miles from San Francisco in the Bay Area of California. Within an hour in any direction, there are famous hiking trails, forests, wineries, luxury brand outlet malls, world-class surfing, and the best universities on the West Coast. Our school is on historic Telegraph Avenue and just 3 blocks from The University of California, Berkeley.

TLC-Berkeley offers a variety of English programs and flexible schedules in order to accommodate a student's diverse needs for studying English. Classes are small, which provides students with a high amount of personal attention. Standard classes include Speaking and Listening, Writing, Grammar, and Reading. In addition, we also offer a variety of elective classes.

TLC-Berkeley offers activities on a weekly basis. Transportation is provided and the activities are often at no cost to the student or greatly discounted. Activities give students the opportunity to practice their English, learn about American culture, and enjoy the Bay Area's many attractions.

Universities and Colleges in the area:

There are numerous prestigious universities and colleges in the California. These include 4-year programs, 2-year programs and technical schools for the undergraduates, graduate students, and beyond. TLC-Berkeley works with schools in the Berkeley area, and in other parts of the U.S., to assist students in obtaining conditional admission.

Host Institution:

None (TLC-Berkeley is an off-campus center)

Housing Availability:

Homestay (16 meals per week; no transportation provided)

About the Center:

The Language Company-Philadelphia is located in the heart of Philadelphia's historic district. Our classes and activities teach students the English skills they need for future university study or jobs.

The city of Philadelphia was the first capital of the United States, so every American child studies about the city's famous sites. Our school is located directly next to Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell, places that thousands of American and international tourists visit every year. In addition, Philadelphia is the 5th largest city in the U.S., so people from many cultures and backgrounds live here. When students study in Philadelphia, they can experience the real diversity of the United States.

- Less than two hours by train to New York City and Washington, D.C.
- Only two hours to the Atlantic Ocean beaches or the Pocono Mountains

TLC-Philadelphia staff organizes social and cultural activities which take advantage of the Philadelphia area's many attractions. Many activities are free or have only a small fee. Trips may include:

- Beaches along the Atlantic coast
- Snowtubing in the mountains
- Trips to Washington D.C. or New York City
- Historical sites or museums
- Professional sports events
- Seasonal parades and festivals
- Shopping in outlet malls
- Amusement parks

THE BEST THING I LIKE ABOUT THE LANGUAGE SCHOOL ARE TEACHERS QUALITY. THEY HAVE GOOD WAYS TO LEARN US LIKE, PLAY FUNNY GAME ABOUT WHAT WE LEARN YESTERDAY TO REVIEW. I LIKE THE CLASS SIZE. IT HAS JUST 3 OR 4 PEOPLE IN EACH CLASS THAT'S GOING TO BE LEARN FASTER. ALSO THE LANGUAGE SCHOOL HAS EXTRA CLASS AFTER 3:10 TO DOING YOUR HOMEWORK WITH HELPING YOUR TEACHER.

UNIVERSITY HOUSING

Students in Ada, Edmond, Boston, Kirksville, South Bend, Dallas/Fort Worth and Minot may live on the university campus.

Convenience:

At the University of Central Oklahoma (TLC-Edmond), Minot State University (TLC-Minot), Truman State University (TLC-Kirksville), East Central University (TLC-Ada), Texas Wesleyan University (TLC-Dallas/Fort Worth), Indiana University South Bend (TLC-South Bend) and Fisher College (TLC-Boston) men's and women's residence halls are close to the center, the cafeteria, the library, and sports facilities.

Meal Plan:

Meal plans vary at each TLC host university. Some host universities offer fixed meal plans while others offer flexible meal plans to students. The cafeteria is open throughout the year, except during limited university closings. During closed periods, the university refund policy will apply.

Guest Rooms:

At some locations, for a small fee, friends or family may stay in the university guest rooms.

APARTMENTS

If you prefer more independence, there are attractive apartments within easy walking distance of each center. We will help arrange the housing you prefer. Typical apartments are unfurnished and require a minimum six-month lease. If required, we will help arrange furnishings for your apartment.

HOTELS/MOTELS

Several hotels offer special low prices for our students. We will help you make arrangements. At TLC-Orlando, hotel accommodations have special features, including kitchenettes or cooking facilities, maid service, and local television and telephone service. These hotels offer special weekly and monthly prices for our students.

INTENSIVE ENGLISH

Program Description:

TLC's academic Intensive English program is carefully designed to help you achieve your language learning goals. The standard Intensive English program meets Monday through Friday. The equivalent of twenty-five 50-minute lessons is offered each week. Classes include structure and speaking, reading, writing, and electives. The optional sixth lesson a day may be used for homework, lab, or test study.

The benefits of TLC's Intensive English Program

- An English language placement test to accurately determine the level of study
- Thirteen four-week sessions per year
- Optional sixth hour daily at no additional cost
- Nine levels of study in the standard program
- Additional levels in Advanced English for post-graduate study

Nine Levels of Instruction

Beginning – Levels 1, 2, and 3

By the end of Level 3, TLC students will be able to:

- Communicate effectively in everyday situations
- Understand simple conversations with native speakers of English
- Write legibly and convey information using grammatically correct simple sentences
- Read material designed for beginning levels of English proficiency

Intermediate – Levels 4, 5, and 6

By the end of Level 6, TLC students will be able to:

- Express ideas and concepts with ease both orally and in writing, with few structural errors
- Use both common and academic grammatical structures appropriately
- Read and understand technical material in a familiar field
- Write clearly and comprehensibly using academic vocabulary and structures

Advanced – Levels 7, 8, and 9

Upon completion of Level 9, TLC students possess the skills needed to function in both the academic and professional world

By the end of Level 9, TLC students will be able to:

- Function comfortably in any English-speaking environment
- Understand speakers in both academic and professional settings
- Participate fully in English conversations with few limitations
- Read and understand academic texts and technical papers
- Gather information from written and spoken sources
- Compose written reports in acceptable academic or professional formats

Please note: levels may be combined based on student enrollment and placement

Elective Classes

At both the Intermediate and Advanced Levels, students are able to focus their English study by choosing electives. Electives allow students to study in areas of interest as well as practice skills recommended by an experienced TLC advisor before attending the university.

The following is a list of electives offered at TLC centers:

- Vocabulary
- Academic Skills
- Drama
- Idioms and Slang
- Current Events
- Listening
- Conversation
- Advanced English Seminar
- Oral Presentation
- Language Laboratory
- Petroleum English
- TOEFL Focus/Preparation
- Pronunciation
- Business English
- American History and Government
- American Culture through Film
- TOEIC Preparation (by special arrangements only)

Please note: Not all electives are offered every session or at every center and some courses may have a level requirement for admission. However, all TLC centers offer a variety of choices of electives.

SEMI-INTENSIVE ENGLISH

Available at the following TLC locations:

Berkeley, Boston, Orlando, and Philadelphia

English = 3 hours per day

Fun = 24 hours per day

Program Description:

Learn English for three hours per day, Monday through Friday, while enjoying the fun and excitement of visiting U.S. cities. TLC will help anyone who enrolls in the Semi-Intensive Program to get the most out of a trip to the United States! High-quality English instruction will be provided for three hours per day. Listening, speaking, pronunciation, vocabulary, reading, and writing are all part of the learning experience. Students enrolled in this program decide what to do with the rest of their time. As a TLC student they can participate in all TLC-sponsored activities including trips and parties. A student's English will improve by taking advantage of the Semi-Intensive Program. It is more than just learning from books; it is learning from culture and experience as well.

Benefits:

Students who want to sharpen their English language skills at a more relaxed pace, will find the Semi-Intensive Program a perfect fit. TLC's qualified staff will help students improve their English language skills while getting to know American culture through planned activities and trips.

TLC's Semi-Intensive English Program is a short-term program with long-term benefits. Students enrolled in TLC's Semi-Intensive English Program will receive a Certificate of Attendance at the end of the year.

Students who come to TLC to study in the Semi-Intensive English Program learn English in the morning and use English the rest of the day!

Visa Requirements:

No special Visa is needed for this program.

FOUNDATIONS OF ENGLISH

Locations:

Available at all TLC centers

Course Description:

Back to the Basics! TLC's Foundations of English course provides students with the exceptional opportunity to build the foundation necessary for success in our Intensive English Program.

TLC's Foundations of English is flexible and meets the needs of all students who arrive with little or no English Language skills. Students learn English for a variety of reasons and Foundations of English is not a "one size fits all" program. Instructors and staff are prepared to meet the individual needs of each and every TLC student and provide what is necessary for all students to achieve success, even if they have never spoken a word of English!

TLC's Foundations of English integrates both quality English language instruction with a variety of cultural opportunities. Students will study on campuses with other TLC students where they will practice their new language skills with both native English speakers and fluent peers alike!

TLC's Foundations of English provides reinforcement in learning English by providing time and support to all students to develop English. At TLC, we value our students' success! Studying English for the first time is a big challenge and by beginning language study with Foundations of English students will not only meet the challenge, but exceed it!

TLC's friendly and service-oriented staff is ready to coordinate a wide range of services to make sure everything from the admissions process to cultural and classroom experiences at TLC guarantees success.

Benefits:

Students will begin their study of English on campuses with other TLC students and native English speakers, which exposes them to various English-learning experiences.

Students will be immersed in American culture as well as experience the cultures of fellow students from around the world. Students will receive a strong foundation in English which will facilitate further English language study.

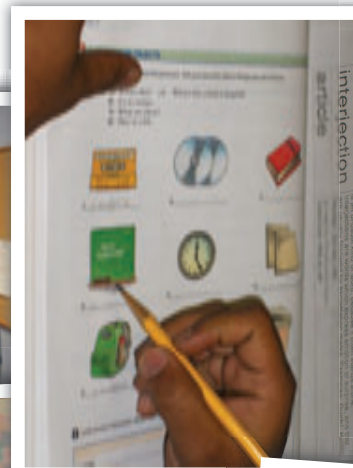

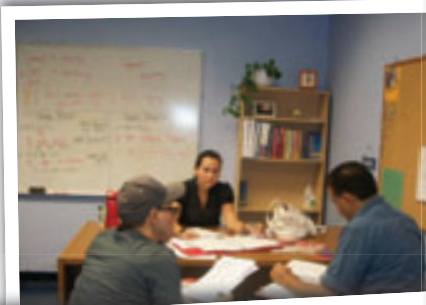

JUNIOR INTENSIVE PROGRAM

Locations:

Available at TLC-Edmond

Friends, fun and American high school or middle school education – 24/7

The TLC Junior Intensive program is designed for students whose age does not allow them to study in our Intensive English Program but are looking for a program where they can learn English, and experience American culture.

ENGLISH WORKS (NIGHT PROGRAM)

Locations:

Available at TLC-Orlando

For an adult with a busy lifestyle, who wants or needs to learn English, the TLC-Orlando's English Works is the perfect program. English Works sets itself apart from community-based English programs in three ways: class size, program price and program theme. TLC-Orlando is dedicated to offering the local Orlando community the opportunity to learn English at an affordable price.

Additional Information:

Class size: English Works classes are small. The smaller class size allows all participants greater attention from the instructor and allows all students plenty of time to talk. TLC is ready to help individuals sharpen conversational English with these small evening classes.

Upon completion of the English Works Program, TLC provides each participant with a certificate that will be a plus for any resume or job application.

Schedule:

English Works Classes take place two evenings per week, which allows students the opportunity to achieve personal English language goals while maintaining a busy lifestyle.

Program Theme:

English Works is designed for students who want to learn English to succeed in both career aspirations and their social life.

Cost:

English Works is currently only offered at TLC's Orlando campus. Anyone interested in English Works should contact the TLC Orlando for further information.

Are you a business or company seeking to assist your employees in learning English?

TLC-Orlando offers package pricing and can provide details to interested companies. Free trial lessons are also available. TLC staff would also be happy to discuss our special 50/50 program, which many local Orlando area companies have offered to their employees.

English Works is an accredited program and can provide an English learning experience to fit any busy lifestyle. Contact TLC-Orlando to set up a free trial lesson.

(APL) ADVANCED PROFICIENCY LEVEL

Locations:

Available at all TLC centers

Many students who complete TLC Level 9—the highest level in TLC's regular Intensive Program—choose to remain at TLC for further study of specific aspects of English. Many of these students are preparing for post-graduate study at an American university and would like to study more extensive English to prepare for their advanced or graduate study at the university. For these students, these TLC centers have designed their APL courses to meet these needs and requests.

Advanced Proficiency Level courses include, but are not limited to, the following offerings: Conversation and Pronunciation or Oratory and Debate, which are designed to improve speaking skills. Composition and Advanced Writing are designed for students who require a higher academic level of writing skills for advanced study at a university. There are also courses that focus on Advanced Reading or Literature, as well as Academic Test Preparation. No matter what the student's field of study, TLC offers the perfect Advanced Proficiency Level courses. Contact the TLC center of your choice for further information on the specific APL course offerings at that center.

ENGLISH FOR PROFESSIONALS PROGRAM

Locations:

Available at TLC-Berkeley, Boston, Bowling Green, Philadelphia, Edmond, Minot, Orlando, Ada, South Bend

Course Description:

These private, customized programs are designed for people who need specific English skills for business, but have limited time to study. Participants can return to their jobs quickly, having mastered the necessary English language skills. Programs can be designed to address the English language needs in particular fields such as Petroleum English, English for the telecommunications industry, or English for technology business.

Benefits:

The benefits of the English for Professionals Program include:

- Individualized attention from a team of TLC's most experienced instructors
- Up to 45 hours of one-on-one instruction per week
- A program designed for particular personal and professional needs
- Public school enrollment assistance for children of program participants, if desired
- Field trips and/or university class visits
- Contacts with professionals in various business fields
- Personal attention that helps students learn professional English quickly and well
- Housing with either a host family or in a convenient apartment or hotel
- All arrangements made before you arrive

Executive One-on-One

An executive who plans to participate in a TLC custom-designed one-on-one English Program may attend two or more weeks, with a flexible daily schedule of up to eight hours. This allows TLC's experienced instructors to target the unique needs of a business professional's day, and choose any accommodation that best suits his or her individual preferences.

The academic program of each executive is individually designed. Special emphasis is placed on those skills identified as most useful to individuals and their companies. All instruction is in English. Professionals will have one or more highly qualified instructors. Curriculum may include standard business and language topics that are focused on individual requirements. The language skill areas are emphasized as requested and as determined during preliminary assessment interview sessions. They may include:

Oral skills, presentation skills, and vocabulary development for videotaped practice of speaking delivery for meetings and before groups, supplemented by review with an instructor skilled in speech modification and public speaking.

Grammar and usage to help individuals use appropriate forms for different environments.

Listening to provide individuals with the opportunity to practice listening as well as opportunities to listen to and self-evaluate personal speaking through technology.

Computer laboratory for practice with computer-assisted instruction and word processing software.

Reading and writing while using materials and situations similar to those in real work environments.

Executive Group

Custom-designed English lessons may be developed and offered to multiple executives from the same company. For maximum effectiveness, the executives participating in the same lessons shall be of comparable English proficiency levels and in the same area of specialty.

Executives with similar professional English needs and goals may attend two or more weeks with a flexible schedule of up to eight hours per day and choose any of the housing accommodations offered that best meet their needs. The professionals who plan to participate in the Executive Group English Program are urged to begin on the same start date although they may choose to have different ending dates.

The Language Company will offer substantial pricing incentives to companies, sending multiple executives to our Executive Group English Program.

Executive Mix

This program follows the same pattern as the Executive One-on-One English Program. Participants will have a lead instructor to guide them through the program, which consists of a combination of both group and private instruction, and will enjoy a high degree of individualized attention at a very affordable cost. The aim of TLC lead instructors is to meet each participant's individual needs.

The Family Plan

About one-half of our English for Professionals clients bring their spouses and/or other family members with them. Why? Because TLC offers a special spouse scholarship and family discount program exclusively for the English for Professionals Program.

The Spouse Scholarship: If a client attending an Executive English Program is accompanied by a husband or wife, TLC will offer a full tuition scholarship to him or her in our regular Intensive English Program. Other program fees (which may include but not be limited to books, insurance, application fees, optional activities) are the responsibility of the student. In the event that an executive is accompanied by a child rather than a spouse, the tuition scholarship may be used for one child of the appropriate age.

The Family Discount: For children of executives who are 12 years of age or older, who accompany an executive, TLC offers a 25% discount off the tuition of our regular Intensive English Program, or Study Vacation Program (when available) for teens. Other program fees (including but not limited to books, insurance, application fees, optional activities) are the responsibility of the student.

Dates:

Any of the English for Professionals offered by TLC can be arranged at your convenience.

Additional Information:

TLC has had the pleasure of working with many international companies including Petrobras, Pemex, Schlumberger, Rhone-Poulanc, Maraven, PDVSA, Lagoven, CONELCA, Vitro Cristal, Cerveceria Cuauhtemoc, United Nations, Tomen, America, Hilti, Laufen International, Telecom, Citgo, Hitachi, Kerr McGee, and many others.

Contact the director of the TLC center selected for further information.

STUDY VACATION PROGRAM

The Language Company's Study Vacation Programs combine educational opportunities with the chance to experience a vacation in the United States. This program is designed for students who are 12 through 18 years of age, who want to enjoy a learning vacation in an interesting and exciting environment with other students from around the world. The English language study is not only focused on English for communication, especially speaking, which participants will use on the various planned activities, but also on English structure skills. These two areas of English study, combined with vacation activities, provide an excellent opportunity for teens.

Program Features Include:

- Full or part-time English Language program designed at your ability level
- After-class activities during the week
- Special activities every weekend
- Homestay with an American host family

Study Vacation Activities:

In addition to studying English, TLC will provide many fun-filled activities and exciting events to complete the vacation experience! After classes, during the week and on every weekend, students will participate in a variety of special activities that will keep everyone busy and learning. Students will not be bored! TLC centers across the country will introduce students to regional fun such as horseback riding in Oklahoma or going to the beach in California! There will also be opportunities to visit museums, sightsee, shop in beautiful malls, swim and enjoy water sports in nearby lakes, participate in sports and attend local team sports events. There may also be picnics, school dances, and parties to enjoy with classmates. Activities will vary, depending on the location chosen and the time of year.

Study Vacation Classes:

TLC offers Study Vacation Programs with the perfect balance of study and fun. The English study program includes classes that emphasize conversation and speaking while reviewing other skill areas. Our teachers are skilled at providing instruction that is fun as well as educational, and students will study with other students from all over the world who are at the same level of English.

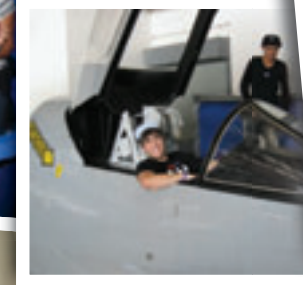

Study Vacation Program classes will provide teens with the opportunity to practice English in a variety of skill areas, including conversation, vocabulary development, idioms and slang, pronunciation, reading and writing, as well as incorporate technology to help expand their skills and exposure to English.

At the end of the TLC Study Vacation Program each participant will receive:

- A Certificate of Attendance that shows the dates of study
- A special T-shirt as a souvenir of your TLC experience
- A group photo of the class
- A lifetime of friends and memories!

Programs:

TLC offers both full-time and part-time Study Vacation Programs. The full-time program offers five to six hours of instruction per day, five days per week. The part-time program offers three hours of instruction per day, five days per week. Both programs are four week sessions.
