

Learn English in the UK and Malta

A Fantastic Opportunity to Study English at Two Attractive Destinations

The Academic Year Course is offered at two attractive study destinations – York in the UK and Malta. By following this long-term course, you will improve your core language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking), your language knowledge (grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation) as well as your overall level of English. Our classes are dynamic, student-centred and lead by experienced teachers with native-level proficiency. To maximise your learning opportunities, you are exposed to language in use in natural and authentic contexts and given activities with real communicative value. This course is ideal if you want to improve your English for study or career purposes over an extended period of time.

You may choose to follow the course either in York or in Malta or at a combination of both academic centres. Choosing to study at both the UK and Malta academic centres means that you enjoy the added benefit of experiencing two diverse academic and social environments, meeting lots of new friends and making the most of your study travel experience. At both academic centres you will find all the learning support you need.

You can choose to follow our Academic Year Course either in England or in Malta or at both academic centres (12 weeks England + 12 weeks Malta).

Just a two-hour train ride away from London, York is one of England's most beautiful historic and famous cities. Originally the capital of Northern England, York was recently voted the European Tourism City of the Year and it ranked the 4th safest city in the UK in the Complete University Guide's 'How Safe is your City?' ranking. York is now a thriving student city, attracting over 25,000 students from over 160 countries every year, offering everything from museums and theatre to an exciting nightlife.

The York Associates Academic Centre is located at the York Science Park, on the University of York campus. This means you can study English, meet with other students in the cafés and experience a vibrant and multinational campus life.

York is easy to reach by air or train (Leeds Bradford or Manchester airport), affordable when it comes to living expenses and easy to get around. York is centrally located, making it easy to travel to other cities such as Edinburgh, Manchester and London over the weekend.

Study in MALTA ESE Learning for Life

What better way to learn English than on a sunny island in the heart of the Mediterranean? Malta welcomes around 80,000 students from all over the world annually and enjoys a reputation as a safe and captivating study travel destination. With mild climate year-round, friendly English-speaking locals and cheap living, accommodation and transport costs, you get excellent value for money when choosing Malta as your language holiday destination.

The European School of English (ESE) is centrally-located and within walking distance from the island's main entertainment hub as well as restaurants, banks, shopping centres and the popular St George's Bay. The school is large, modern and equipped with the latest interactive teaching technology. It was awarded the Education Stars Award for Best Language School in Malta in 2012 and 2013, based on students' feedback and holds numerous internationally-recognised accreditations such as EAQUALS and IALC.

Malta is a member of the EU and the Schengen Area and is just two or three hours away from main European airports.
