CULTURE IN SPRACHENATELIER

For Sprachenatelier, intercultural exchange is associated as much with art and culture as it is with language.

The institute features exhibitions by young international artists, dance workshops, film-screenings, concerts, readings and evenings dedicated to presenting the politics, culture and society of a particular country.

Kulturmittwoch (Culture Wednesday)

Wednesday is a day of culture in Sprachenatelier. Every Wednesday afternoon we go on a field trip to a Berlin museum or through historical and modern, well-known and not so well-known city parts of the city.

OUR SERVICE

We offer assistance in the search for accommodation as well as a pick-up service from all Berlin airports. Since Berlin is wonderful to explore by bike, Sprachenatelier also lends students bicycles by the day or week.

Our team will de happy to hear from you. We speak German, English, French, Italian, Bulgarian, Polish, Turkish, Croatian, Russian, Spanish and Kurdish.

OUR INSTITUTE

Our institute is more than a language school offering German courses and classes for over forty other languages.

Sprachenatelier Berlin is host to concerts, art exhibitions, book readings, workshops and panel discussions for students and Berlin residents alike. We also offer courses in photography, illustration and drawing, dance and graphic design.

The institute is situated in an early 20th century art nouveau building with bright, quiet and spacious rooms that make for an ideal learning atmosphere.

We are located in a student area of Berlin Friedrichshain, a district well known in Europe for its young and vibrant culture, cafes and cinemas as well as cosmopolitan galleries and nightlife.

All of our teachers are experienced native speakers who hold a 3rd-level-qualification.

Sprachenatelier Berlin is an officially recognized private school by the Berlin Senate.

GERMAN COURSES IN SPRACHENATELIER

Right from the onset, a strong emphasis is placed on the ability to communicate in realistic settings.

All courses, even beginners, are conducted in German, allowing students to immerse themselves in the language and practice speaking frequently and without inhibition.

All four skills — listening, reading, speaking and writing — are honed concurrently with grammar and vocabulary learning. Classes consist of small groups with an average of 10 people. All courses follow the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and can be used accordingly to prepare students for the relevant examinations.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE COURSES

A new world of languages and cultures is to be discovered without even leaving Berlin. Choose from over 40 languages, be it something completely new and exotic or a language you want to brush up on.

We also offer preparation courses for internationally recognized language exams including IELTS, TOEFL and the Cambridge ESOL examinations.

More than just a language school
