American English Institute

The AEI's Intensive English Program serves thousands of undergraduate students from around the globe each year.

The AEI's faculty members prepare international students for future academic success—at the University of Oregon or another American university

- Conditional admission to the University of Oregon to work toward your bachelor's degree
- Seven levels of non-credit academic English courses, from beginning to advanced (placement test upon arrival)
- Ten-week sessions throughout the year (four terms: fall, winter, spring, and summer)
- Weekly one-on-one conversation practice with a UO student (included in your tuition)
- Award-winning campus environment (green-minded and tech-savvy with a priority on cultural diversity)

The AEI and UO's programs and services help international students adjust to a new cultural environment and the academic demands of university life in the U.S.

- Airport pick-up and comprehensive orientation
- Homestay placement and local housing information
- Academic advising and help with transitions
- Exciting social, cultural, and academic activities and field trips
- UO student ID card gives you access to the campus library, museums, recreation center, and more
- Free bus transportation throughout the Eugene-Springfield metro area
