3 Types of Kiwi

You will hear the word kiwi a lot while in New Zealand. That is because it has three meanings:

Kiwi = a type of fruit

Kiwi = a name for the people of New Zealand

Kiwi = New Zealand's national bird

NZ FACTS

Welcome to the world leading English language centre - NZLC

University of Cambridge ESOL English Exam Courses

Opening the door to opportunities for work, study and travel

Cambridge English exams are the most recognised English exams in the world and are accepted by employers, educational institutions and government departments around the world as proof of ability to use English. At NZLC we offer 4 different types of exam courses (PET / FCE / CAE / BEC) depending on your English level.

CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH
Language Assessment

Authorised Centre

Morning classes cover:

- Reading skills and practice exercises
- Writing skills and practice exercises
- Grammar presentations
- Use of English skills and practice
- Weekly vocabulary and grammar quizzes
- Collocations and phrasal verbs

Afternoon classes cover:

- Listening skills and practice exercises
- Speaking skills and practice exercises
- Topical vocabulary
- Phrasal verbs and commonly used phrases

Progress indicators:

- Each week a mock test is given of a single exam component to help students prepare for real test conditions
- 1 introductory speaking test and 2 full speaking tests will be given over the length of the course
- Regular academic counselling and test feedback
- Homework is given daily

I've been teaching Cambridge exam preparation courses for many years. I love the fact that courses like BEC provide the students with the practical reading, speaking, listening and writing skills they can put into use immediately after the course. The BEC qualification is recognised around the world, by businesses and other institutions, as proof of business English skills. As the course progresses I see the students growing in confidence in areas such as business grammar and vocabulary and I get a feeling of satisfaction in a job well done.
